NOTES:

This is just a sample introduction for the beginning of the show.

It does not have to be verbatim, so don’t stress about the details.

The most important things to remember when introducing an entertainer are:

- A. get the audience’s attention,
- B. tell them how awesome the show’s gonna be, and
- C. get them to clap, to kick the show off with energy.

If you have any questions, just ask. Thanks! ~Nathan
